Pageants remain popular

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

In southern New Jersey, a weathered strip of boardwalk has been reinvented a few times, from a seaside retreat, to a carnival-style family beach resort that turned seedy, to a glitzy East Coast gambling mecca.

Through the changes, one constant, Convention Hall, has remained. In that auditorium, dreams have been dashed for 3,900 young women and realized for 78 others — those who have been crowned Miss America. Vaseline on teeth, spray on hair and crown on head, the winners take that legendary walk down the runway.

It's a piece of Americana few women are ambivalent about.

Beauty pageants tend to divide those with strong feelings into two camps: Either they've wished they were wearing that satin sash and giving that regal wave, or they're disgusted that in a century when women have gotten the vote and command of a NASA mission, some still strut in bathing suits so experts can judge their thighs.

Regardless of the conflicting emotions beauty pageants raise, they remain popular — especially the Miss America Pageant. After the Oscars and the Emmys, the pageant is the third longest-running live entertainment special in television history. And, like those shows, it is a television event. People gather in living rooms to watch. They debate whether Miss Texas can once again make it to the finals and who's wearing the most glamorous gown.

Since 1954, when Lee Meriwether was crowned Miss America, the pageant has been televised. Without TV, it's likely beauty contests would have remained filler in local newspapers, and only the 20,000 people in the arena would have been part of the extravaganza.

While critics ponder why anyone would subject herself to such a meat market, contestants maintain the pageants are great, citing the scholarships awarded, the self-esteem boosted and the opportunities to showcase their talent and beauty.

How do these contests survive in an age when there's finally a major-party female presidential candidate (Elizabeth Dole, herself a former Duke University May queen)?

There's the possibility of fame. And there's $32 million in scholarship money in the Miss America Pageant alone, making it the largest provider of scholarships for women, says Robert L. Beck, CEO of the Miss America Organization.

No one denigrates the scholarships; it's parading in swimsuits that raises hackles.

Osmond remains convinced that the pageant is a showcase for individuality. "They are not going to be dolled up basically like Barbie dolls," he says, noting that in one segment, contestants will not wear makeup. "We are trying to change the stereotype to show it is not just being a beautiful woman at the right place and at the right time, but that there's a lot of substance, a lot of chutzpah."

Handler has come a long way

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Can you please help me remember the name of an old Fox sitcom about six people on a farm after the rest of the world had been destroyed? And did the actress who played Elaine on "Seinfeld" once play the female part of "Herman's Head"? -Dave Roberson, Montgomery, Ala.

Dave, you are thinking of "Woops!," the postnuclear Fox sitcom that ran for 2 1/2 months in 1992. Its narrator was played by Evan Handler, now a regular on ABC's "It's Like, You Know ..."

The part of Angel, the kindhearted side of Herman Brooks' (William Ragsdale) psyche on "Herman's Head," was played by actress Molly Hagan, not Julia Louis-Dreyfus of "Seinfeld."

Did two different actresses play Al Bundy's daughter on "Married ... With Children"? If so, what were their names, and what are they doing now? -L. Heeren, Worthington, Minn.

Pipeline

Only Christina Applegate, now starring in NBC's "Jesse," played Kelly Bundy.

Did two different dogs play Diefenbaker when "Due South" was in production? -Lois Todd, Punta Gorda, Fla.

Yes, a dog named Lincoln played Dief during the first two seasons, one of which aired on CBS. For the latter two seasons, which U.S. viewers saw in syndication, a dog named Draco played Dief.

And for dedicated trivia buffs, a third dog named Frankie played Diefenbaker in the original TV movie pilot.

Aren't Mark Harmon and Cristina Ferrare brother and sister? And wasn't she married to automaker John DeLorean before marrying Tony Thomopoulos? -A.B., Meriden, Conn.

You are correct about the former "Home & Family" host's marital history, but Ferrare and Harmon are neither related nor have they ever even worked together. His sister is "Tic Tac girl" Kelly Harmon.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

U.S. Open Tennis
3 P.M. ON CBS

It's a sports junkie's delight, a day that may have given birth to the term "couch potato." A light fare of preview shows is the appetizer for the start of a new NFL season. Then there's plenty of baseball to digest as the pennant races head for the home stretch. But leave some room for the main course, the men's Grand Slam final at the U.S. Open, where 1998 champion Patrick Rafter defeated fellow Aussie Mark Philippoussis in four sets. John McEnroe provides analysis from Arthur Ashe Stadium at New York's Flushing Meadows.

Movie: Braveheart
6 P.M. ON NBC

Director and star Mel Gibson preceded James Cameron ("Titanic") as king of the Oscars with his five-statuette sweep for this 1995 drama. In addition to the coveted best picture and best director trophies, it also won awards for makeup, sound-effects editing and cinematography. Gibson plays 13th-century Scottish warrior William Wallace, who rallies his countrymen against the British monarch Edward I (Patrick McGoohan). Sophie Marceau and Catherine McCormack also star.

The 51st Primetime Emmy Awards
7 P.M. ON FOX

Michael J. Fox and his newest "Spin City" co-star, Heather Locklear, are scheduled to be among the presenters at TV's annual extravaganza of excellence. There are two especially tough races to watch this year: best actress in a comedy series and best actor in a drama series. And the two categories have something in common: Each has one star of an HBO hit series (James Gandolfini, "The Sopranos," and Sarah Jessica Parker, "Sex and the City") up against better-known network stars. So the question may be: Does (audience) size matter?

John McEnroe
U.S. OPEN TENNIS

Movie: P.T. Barnum
7 P.M. ON A&E

The man who almost single-handedly invented modern mass entertainment gets a respectful but honest portrayal in this new drama. Beau Bridges and his son Jordan play Barnum at different ages, from his early years as a small-town merchant through the ups and downs of his legendary career as a master showman. Cynthia Dale, Henry Czerny and George Hamilton also star, with Josh Ryan Evans ("Ally McBeal") as one of Barnum's most famous attractions, Gen. Tom Thumb. Part 2 airs Monday.

Mystery Science Theater 3000
10 P.M. ON SCIFI

The series finale aired more than a month ago, but it ain't over till the lost episode is found. In this never-before-seen offering that didn't make it onto the prefinale schedule, Mike (Michael J. Nelson) and the movie-bashing 'bots tackle "Merlin's Shop of Mystical Wonders." Ernest Borgnine stars in this goofy 1996 adventure that brings the medieval wizard into the 20th century.

Simmons helps turn dreams to realities

He says talk show will be unique

By Lorri Antosz Benson

"I would like to be Santa Claus with the sleigh and the reindeer, and give people gifts," fitness guru Richard Simmons says. "The only problem is there is only one Santa Claus."

From this desire grew the concept for Simmons' new show, "Dream Maker"," which was created to grant the wishes of everyday people and make their fondest dreams come true.

Not quite talk show, not quite reality show, "Dream Maker" is billed as breakthrough television similar to "Queen for a Day."

It is a talk show in that Simmons will sit on a set, albeit an unusual one that he describes as "nothing you've ever seen before, a dream maker's palace!" Like other talk shows, it will have a studio audience and taped segments.

"There are enough nightmares on TV; let's make some dreams come true," he says with his characteristic enthusiasm.

"One couple had never been on a honeymoon, so they finally planned a cruise when the husband had kidney failure," he recalls. "We found a ship that has kidney dialysis on board. Now they can have their honeymoon."

Talk the Talk

Another woman wrote in describing her friend's 27-year desire to ride in the Goodyear blimp, so Simmons surprised the friend with a front-seat trip.

"We're doing reunions, dream trips, giving away computers, scholarships, band uniforms," he continues. "Things other shows pull out for sweeps, we'll be doing every day."

This show is nothing if not ambitious. Simmons' "Dream Team" is a staff of 70 that includes some longtime employees about whom he fondly says, "Tell me Catholic school doesn't make you loyal!"

Also ambitious is the budget. Although many of the dreams are fulfilled via donations, and money is being contributed, Simmons claims this will be the most expensive show to produce on daytime television.

This doesn't scare him, though, because "the richness of the show does not come from money."

The demanding travel and schedule are intense. "I will soon weigh what Kate Moss weighs," the 51-year-old jokes, "but it's worth it to see the people's faces when their dream comes true. I'm the only one who can do this show. No one else would do it."

"Dream Maker" premieres Monday, Sept. 20, so send your "dream mail" to Richard Simmons' "Dream Maker," P.O. Box 4344, Hollywood, CA 90078 or through the show's Website at www.rsdreammaker.com.

In other news, "National Enquirer TV"" with Mike Walker premieres this week.

Monday's Best Bets

Everybody Loves Raymond
7 P.M. ON CBS

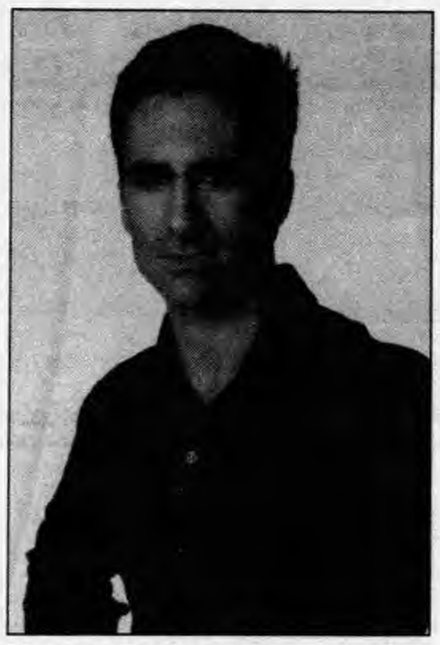
It's all "Raymond," all the time, in a four-episode warm-up for next week's season premiere. Reminiscing is the theme, as Ray and Debra (Ray Romano, Patricia Heaton) recall how they ended up as Frank and Marie's (Peter Boyle, Doris Roberts) neighbors in "Why Are We Here?" Then they remember their nuptials in the two-part story "The Wedding" before flashing even further back to "How They Met."

Suddenly Susan
7 P.M. ON NBC

Luis' (Nestor Carbonell) first gallery exhibition has Susan (Brooke Shields) torn between friendship and fiscal responsibility in the encore of "The First Picture Show." Jack (Judd Nelson) hits a roadblock in his efforts to get to know Todd's sister (guest star Arabella Field, "Dante's Peak") better. Annabelle Gurwitch ("Mouse Hunt") also guest stars.

The Truth About Science Fiction
7 P.M. ON HIST

Science-fiction writers have always been ahead of their time. Look at Jules Verne, who was writing about a voyage to the moon in 1865, and H.G. Wells, who was envisioning human-alien encounters long before "The X-Files." This encore special traces the history of sci-fi and its relationship with actual science, which has found some of its best ideas in sci-fi. Participants include NASA scientists, authors Harlan Ellison and Larry Niven, and sci-fi and horror scholar Forrest J. Ackerman.



Nestor Carbonell
SUDDENLY SUSAN

Veronica's Closet
7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Alec (Ron Silver) is bitten by the green-eyed monster when Ronnie (Kirstie Alley) plans a weekend with Justin (guest star Greg Evigan). He's about to resign and go to Japan when the death of Ronnie's dog draws him back — and into her arms. Now she has two men who want to spend the weekend, and possibly longer, with her. Which one will she choose in the encore of last season's finale, "Veronica Says Goodbye"?

NFL Football
8 P.M. ON ABC

Monday Night Football begins its 30th year on a high — a mile high actually — when the Denver Broncos begin defense of their title at home against the Miami Dolphins. The fans at Mile High Stadium may long for the days of quarterback John Elway, who retired in the off-season, but running back Terrell Davis is still present and can break open a game at any moment. For the Dolphins, Dan Marino hopes this is finally his year. Marino's stellar career is missing just one thing — a championship. A strong running game would help, something coach Jimmy Johnson knows is essential to his team's success.

Tuesday's Best Bets

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

In the encore of last season's finale, "Goodbyes," Harm (David James Elliott) has his night vision back and must decide whether to stay with JAG or return to his first love, flying. As he wrestles with his future, an enemy from the past resurfaces: ex-sailor Charlie Lynch (Erik Todd Dellums), who was responsible for a little girl's death that still haunts Harm. The child's twin sister is now Lynch's hostage, and Harm is prepared to fight him to the death to save her.

Hollywood Behind the Badge: A Century of Cinema Cops and Detectives
7 P.M. ON AMC

Who's your favorite movie cop or private eye? Sherlock Holmes? Popeye Doyle? Philip Marlowe? Chances are you'll get a glimpse of him or her in this retrospective of criminal-chaser films over the years. Clips from "Serpico," "Touch of Evil," "The French Connection" and the Charlie Chan movies, among others, illustrate the hour. Afterward, stay tuned for the 1974 Roy Scheider cop flick "The Seven-Ups," which has one of the best car-chase scenes ever.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"P.T. Barnum: The Greatest Showman on Earth" profiles the real man behind this week's TV movie. It tells his story with help from biographer Arthur H. Saxon, descendant Elinor Biggs and adman Jerry Della Femina, who knows something about giving the people what they want. Remembered for his exhibits of oddities — some authentic, some contrived — and for the line "There's a sucker born every minute" (which he didn't say), Barnum paved the way for movies and MTV with his insight into popular preferences and his use of visuals.

Movie: Journey to the Center of the Earth
7 P.M. ON USA

Explorers searching for a missing man in New Zealand find something they didn't expect: a strange land under the Earth's surface that's home to humans, small dinosaurs and a miraculous plant that can cure all ills. Treat Williams, Jeremy London, Bryan Brown and Tushka Bergen star in this new two-part adventure based on Jules Verne's novel. Robert Halmi Jr., known for his ambitious, effects-laden productions ("Cleopatra," "Alice in Wonderland") is one of the executive producers. The conclusion airs Wednesday.

Dharma & Greg
8 P.M. ON ABC

Dharma (Jenna Elfman) needs some business advice, and who better to give it than her father-in-law (Mitchell Ryan)? Edward's exposure to the business in question, an alternative clothing company for men, brings out another side of him in the encore of "Dharma Drags Edward Out of Retirement." Thomas Gibson and Susan Sullivan also star.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: The Pelican Brief
7 P.M. ON CBS

Julia Roberts returned from a two-year hiatus to star in this 1993 thriller about a plucky law student determined to find a connection between the assassinations of two Supreme Court justices on opposite ends of the political spectrum. After a brief she writes outlining her theory draws the attention of the powerful people it implicates and endangers her life, she turns to a dashing investigative reporter (Denzel Washington) for help.

The Norm Show
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Frustrated in his efforts to be allowed to play in a charity hockey game, Norm (Norm Macdonald) asks his old coach for help. But it turns out he's the one who turned Norm in for tax evasion, forcing him out of hockey and into his social-work gig. Michael McShane ("Drop Dead Gorgeous") guest stars in the encore of "Norm's Coach."

The Drew Carey Show
8 P.M. ON ABC

Here comes Drew (Drew Carey) to save the day in an encore of "Brotherhood of Man" when the store's owners threaten to close the place and throw everyone out of work. THE PELICAN BRIEF

HBO Salutes the Emmys
8 P.M. ON HBO

Who better than a network with 74 nominations going into Sunday's Emmy ceremony (only NBC received more) to host a tribute to the awards? Details of this special were as nonexistent at press time as the results of the awards show, but it's a safe bet the producers have polished up some footage from "The Sopranos"; the critically acclaimed comedy-drama about a mob family earned a whopping 16 nominations.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

To some, she's a coldblooded killer. Others, particularly women like her whose husbands have traded them in for newer models, see her as a wronged woman who got the kind of revenge they've often fantasized about. "A Woman Scorned: The Betty Broderick Story," which originally aired in March, takes another look at the wealthy Californian accused of killing her ex-husband and his new wife in 1989. Bill Kurtis hosts.

CMA Awards Preview
9 P.M. ON NASH

Get a jump-start on next week's Country Music Association Awards with this special spotlighting some of the nominees. The group Dixie Chicks could be a big winner, with nominations for entertainer, vocal group, music video and single of the year. Keep an eye on Tim McGraw, too; he's up for top entertainer, male vocalist, single and video .

World's Wildest Police Videos
7 P.M. ON FOX

"Shocking Crashes and Chases" is the theme as the reality show opens its third season. Retired Sheriff John Bunnell hosts.

Up Close & Personal ... the Search for Miss America 2000
8 P.M. ON ABC

Get a sneak peek at all 51 competitors in Saturday's Miss America Pageant in this hourlong special, which visits the women's hometowns for personal glimpses of their lives, families, hopes and dreams. Miss America 1999, Nicole Johnson, co-hosts with Nancy O'Dell from a unique virtual-reality set.

Action
8 P.M. ON FOX

One of its main characters is a former child star, but this smart, sassy satire is definitely not for children. Jay Mohr stars as movie-studio head Peter Dragon, an action-adventure film specialist whose winning streak is coming to an end with a box-office bomb and a script snafu. In "Pilot," the desperate Dragon meets Wendy Ward, a child actress who grew up to be a coke-snorting hooker. When he discovers she still knows a good script when she sees one, a beautiful working relationship is born.

Frasier
8 P.M. ON NBC

Everyone's affairs of the heart go awry in the encore of "Shutout in Seattle." Frasier nearly blows it with Faye when he calls her by another woman's name. Daphne loses something of her boyfriend's (guest star Saul Rubinek), Roz (Peri Gilpin) loses her inhibitions with a co-worker, and Frasier loses it when he discovers Niles looking for love in all the wrong places.

American Justice
9 P.M. ON A&E

In 1990, Lawrencia "Bambi" Bembenek escaped from prison after serving nine years of a life sentence for killing her husband's ex-wife — a crime she says she didn't commit. Thousands believed her, and her escape and months on the run captured the public imagination. In the encore of "Hunting Bambi: The Laurie Bembenek Story," Bembenek herself, the slain woman's boyfriend and officials involved in the case tell their sides of the story.

Movie: Cliffhanger
7 P.M. ON FOX

He and his assistant (Michael Rooker) soon discover that this is no routine rescue when the crooks greet them with guns.

"Brian Epstein" remembers the man known as the "fifth Beatle," who helped engineer the music group's rise to world stardom. A troubled man who faced prejudice on several fronts for being gay and Jewish, he remained in the closet even with the band. Interviews with Paul McCartney and other music-industry insiders retrace Epstein's controversial last days and attempt to uncover the truth: Was his death at age 32 really a suicide?

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Investigative Reports
2 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Behind Bars" takes viewers on a three-hour journey through maximum security prisons in the United States, Hungary, Russia and China, contrasting the cruel conditions of some with the humane arrangements of others. Stops include Texas' death row, a Chinese institution where officers are unarmed and Beer Shiva in Israel, where drug dealers are punished.

Movie: Wayne's World 2
6 P.M. ON USA

America's favorite slacker, Wayne Campbell (Mike Myers), goes on a quest to find acts for a monster rock concert and keep the lovely Cassandra (Tia Carrere). Dana Carvey and Christopher Walken also star in this 1993 "Wayne's World" sequel, co-written by Myers and the talented Bonnie and Terry Turner ("3rd Rock From the Sun"). Michael A. Nickles ("8 Heads in a Duffel Bag") plays the late Jim Morrison, who brings the concert idea to Wayne in a dream.

The 79th Annual Miss America Pageant
7 P.M. ON ABC

Donny and Marie Osmond co-host this year's edition of the nation's most famous pageant from Atlantic City, N.J. The latest change in the venerable event may disappoint those who look forward to the talent segment: Traditionally all 10 finalists have participated, but this year only five get to perform during the telecast. The music group 98 Degrees is also slated to take the stage sometime before retiring Miss America Nicole Johnson sends her successor down the runway.

THE PRETENDER

Cops
7 P.M. ON FOX

An hour of real-life police drama opens with "Arizona," as the show follows officers in the city of Mesa. After nearly being run over by the suspects he's pursuing, an officer fires two shots and then calls for help. Other calls take Mesa police to a man throwing things off a second-story balcony and a man who claims his girlfriend has run off into the cotton fields to shoot herself. Next, it's off to the East Coast with an encore of "Palm Beach."

The Pretender
7 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Qallupilluit," Jarod (Michael T. Weiss) infiltrates the Centre's Arctic Research Station in search of his long-lost father and finds a sinister cloning experiment going on amid a series of murders. The action continues in last season's two-hour finale, "Donoterase," in which Jarod and his dad (guest star George Lazenby, "On Her Majesty's Secret Service") team up to help a teen-age Jarod clone (guest star Ryan Merriman) escape the Triumvirate. Andrea Parker also stars.
